

CAREER/INTERNSHIP FAIR PARTICIPANTS

Alpha Capital CRE

Alpha Capital CRE was formed in 2008 by Michael Riley and Anthony Longo under its predecessor name, Alpha Alternatives. In January 2017, the company changed its name to Alpha Capital CRE providing its clients and industry a clear message on Alpha's philosophy in providing debt and equity solutions for all commercial real estate product types.

Alpha's philosophy in 2008 was to incorporate their experience and relationships from raising institutional fund capital and transitioning those relationships into direct joint venture CRE transactions. As the CRE market strengthened in 2010, Alpha built out a full-service Capital Markets firm focusing on equity, debt and institutional real estate fund placement agent services.

Michael and Anthony had the foresight to transition the platform to a transactional-based model focusing on capital market solutions for all commercial real estate asset classes and product types. The firm and its representatives work as intermediaries to provide optimal advisory services.

Clark Street Real Estate

Clark Street Real Estate is a boutique company that specializes in developing and redeveloping retail, medical office, industrial and mixed-use properties ranging from single tenant to large-scale, complex projects.

Clark Street Real Estate was founded as a fully integrated, internally capitalized development company with a local focus and a global reach. Our Principals have deep relationships dating back over 30 years. To date, our visionaries have developed more than 30 million square feet of property and acquired more than 50,000 acres of land. While we engage each project according to its unique variables, we apply a consistent approach. Whether focused on urban infill or green grass developments, we view our projects as a collaborative process that balances the needs of all major stakeholders.

Clark Street Real Estate does more than create dynamic projects that serve communities. We give back through philanthropic initiatives including real estate education and mentoring, cancer research, children in need, and juvenile diabetes among others.

Clayco

Clayco provides turnkey, full-service building solutions through our Real Estate Services capabilities and our fully integrated subsidiaries: Forum Studio, an award-winning architecture and design firm, Concrete Strategies, the nation's largest tilt-up concrete provider and Ventana, a building enclosure company that designs, supplies, and installs high performing curtain wall façade systems. In addition, Clayco's intelligent data collection company, Uplift Data Partners, uses drone technology and Mu/Dai is a digital solution technology provider.

Clayco has dramatically set new standards for design, quality and craftsmanship, efficient project management, cost containment and worker safety. We've integrated the building process from head to tail and adopted new technologies that bring state of the art design-build opportunities to clients and the communities they serve.

We have nationwide reach and reputation, with offices in Chicago and St. Louis, and we break ground across each of the business units we serve

DBRS, Inc.

DBRS is an independent, privately held, globally recognized credit ratings agency with offices in Toronto, New York, London, Chicago and Mexico City. We strive to differentiate ourselves from competitors through a more pragmatic rather than mechanistic approach, in-depth research and unequalled mandate execution.

Founded in 1976, we are a rapidly growing, international ratings agency with deep roots in Canada. Our four decades of experience and strong track record provide the foundation for us to seek out new opportunities and to make targeted investments that align with our core ratings operations. We don't seek to have scale in all markets, but when we choose to enter a new market segment, we strive to become a leading player known for trusted ratings, opinions and products.

Our approach and our size as the world's fourth-largest ratings agency allow us to be nimble enough to respond to customers' needs in their local markets, but large enough to provide the necessary expertise and resources they require. We build meaningful relations, which contribute to a convincing value proposition for both issuers and investors to choose us a globally accepted alternative to other ratings agencies.

At DBRS, we rate more than 2,400 issuer families and nearly 50,000 securities worldwide.

Heitman

Heitman is a global real estate investment management firm with $34.8 billion in assets under management. We are an active participant in the three core segments of the global real estate property and capital markets. With on-the-ground private and public market investment teams in North America, Europe, and Asia-Pacific, we execute core, value-added, and opportunistic strategies for investors seeking investments in:

Private Real Estate Equity: Direct investments in property

Real Estate Securities: Investments in publicly traded, listed securities, including REITs, REOCs and other real estate companies traded regionally and globally

Real Estate Debt: Direct investments in property secured by senior and mezzanine mortgage positions

Within each discipline, our portfolio compositions reflect investment expertise developed over multiple economic and market cycles across the risk/return spectrum.

The John Marshall Law School

Throughout its history, The John Marshall Law School has upheld a tradition of diversity, innovation, and opportunity and has consistently provided an education that combines an understanding of the theory, the philosophy, and the practice of law. Founded in 1899, The John Marshall Law School is proud to be recognized as a dynamic independent law school, promoting excellence in all aspects of legal education.

Due to their belief that the study of law is critical to the health of our democratic society, our founders made it their guiding principle to offer working professionals from all walks of life the opportunity and access to study law. Today, the law school remains true to those principles, and those of our namesake, in our efforts to continue redefining the opportunities of today's candidates and tomorrow's practitioners.

We are proud to be recognized as a diverse, innovative institution, promoting excellence in all aspects of legal education. We provide one of the most comprehensive and aggressive JD skills-training curricula in the country, including trial and appellate advocacy, alternative dispute resolution, client counseling, negotiations, and legal writing. In addition, our Centers for Excellence provide graduate law programs in employee benefits, information technology and privacy law, intellectual property law, international business and trade law, real estate law, and tax law. JD students have the opportunity to earn a JD certificate, a joint JD/LLM from one of our Centers, or a joint JD/graduate degree through partner programs with area institutions.
